Presents

Wildlife and Wellbeing

Kim Wormald, internationally awarded Australian nature photographer will be sharing her stunning wildlife images, talking about each species and the art of ethical wildlife photography.

Kim, a passionate Australian has a deep love of and respect for wildlife, in particular birds. Her images are taken without the use of baits, calling them or using a flash but captured by immersing herself in nature and patiently watching to see what appears. Her images have received many national and international awards, including 3 times as a finalist in the Australian Geographic Nature Photographer of the Year.

So come along and experience the true beauty of birds as captured by Kim as though you were close up to them in nature.
